3) SCOUTS STAYING 1-2 OVERNIGHTS MUST PACK THE FOLLOWING ITEMS ALL ITEMS MUST LABELLED and in a backpack or duffle bag (no garbage bags if possible!)

- A suitable backpack for a short hike. If it isn't the one they will use to haul stuff to the camp, a small backpack or bag for a water bottle would be encouraged.
- Good hiking or walking shoes
- Water Bottle (Will have refillable bulk containers on hand)
- Clothes / layers (Dress for the weather because camp doesn't stop for rain or snow. Include Cotton and fleece layers and/or bunnyhugs). Evenings and overnight tenting IS chilly
- JACKET and RAIN SHELL
- Splash Pants (if able)
- Sleeping Bag / Pillows
- Camp Pad (Foam Pad or small compact Cot to sleep on, or an air mattress that your child is able to inflate)
- Uniform (For opening, Campfire, and Closing)
- Mess Kit / Dishes (Dollarama,, Canadian tire or Cabela's if you do not have one) (Dishes with a mesh bag to hang in the mess hall).
- Toiletry Kit (tooth brush & tooth paste, face cloth hair brush, soap --if preferred, otherwise we will have some generic hand soap)
- Flashlights / Headlamps
- Pajamas (This is mandatory for heated Cabins and sharing tents)
- Hat / Toque (Of any kind. Even if they aren't typically hat kids, we need sun and wind protection)
- Stuffy / Night Support Object (even us big kids have these!)
- 4 pairs of socks (required even though its 2 days)
- Bug Spray
- A FOX 40 or a Loud Whistle for hike emergency preparedness. (Dollarama sells a neat paracord bracelet with a whistle and a compass)
- Camping chair- Optional, but recommended if you have a small one!
- Toque + light mittens- Mandatory

This seems like a bit of gear to the average person, but to a Scout, we need to Be Prepared as our founder Lord Baden Powell inspired.
